

About SBP

SBP is a national disaster rebuilding organization whose mission is to shorten the time between disaster and recovery. We strive to ensure that disaster-impacted communities recover in a prompt, efficient and predictable manner.

Volunteer Coordinator

Volunteer Coordinators support SBP's mission by creating an extraordinary volunteer experience that gets people excited about volunteering with SBP. Volunteer Coordinators handle all volunteer logistics, support volunteer fundraising efforts that directly support the AmeriCorps project, speak with energy to large groups of volunteers about SBP before and after their volunteer build, communicate with multiple SBP departments to ensure volunteers have a quality experience, and spread the word about SBP at local outreach events. As the first point of contact for many volunteers, Volunteer Coordinators must be comfortable expressing thanks, talking about the state of the recovery, and articulating the ongoing need for support. Volunteer Coordinators serve as the point of contact for multiple volunteer groups that register to volunteer anywhere from a day to a year in advance, answering all questions, relaying all updates and documenting logistics. Volunteer Coordinators work diligently both before and after the volunteer group's build experience encouraging volunteers to become further engaged in SBP, beyond just volunteering. This hard work will result in returning volunteer groups, quality volunteer experiences, increased volunteer fundraising that directly supports the AmeriCorps project, and a greater awareness about SBP.
